Illinois Health and Hospital Association

The U.S. lost its measles elimination status after the country saw uninterrupted transmission of the virus over the past year, while cases in Illinois remained below their peak of two years ago. WTTW