

2019 Workers' Compensation Symposium Protect Your Staff, Protect Your Patients

It's a group effort, and IHA is on your side. | May 2 - 3 | Crowne Plaza, Springfield

May 2 | 1 - 5 pm

Violence in Healthcare

Speaker: Dan Hartley, EDD, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health

Workplace violence is four times more common in healthcare settings and costs hospitals billions of dollars a year, making this an urgent issue for employers.

A Law Enforcement Perspective

Speaker: Steve Wilder, BA, CHSP, STS, Chief Operating Officer, Sorensen, Wilder & Associates

What can healthcare employers expect from law enforcement? How should healthcare employers work with law enforcement?

Panel on Violence Prevention Programs

- ▶ Tom Stecher, Regional EMS Manager, UnityPoint Health
- ▶ Judy Pasternack, Behavioral Health/Substance Abuse Nurse Educator, Northwestern Medicine
- ▶ Julie Davis and Lorraine Pacha, Employee Health Nurses, Genesis Health System
- ▶ Ruth Chance, Manager Employee Health, SwedishAmerican Health System

Reception: 5:30 - 8:30 pm

May 3 | 8 am - 12:30 pm

OSHA and Violent Incidents

Speaker: Brian Bothast, Lead Safety and Occupational Health Specialist, Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA)

Learn about OSHA's 2016 Guidelines for Preventing Workplace Violence for Healthcare and Social Service Workers.

Legal Updates for Illinois and Iowa

Speaker: Anne McAtee, Attorney, Hopkins & Huebner

Secondary Trauma and Resilience

Speaker: Nancy Zarse, Psy.D., Professor of Forensic Psychology, The Chicago School of Professional Psychology

Click to Register

Questions? Please contact:

Mike Baiardo
Vice President
(630) 276-5602
mbaiardo@team-ihha.org

Mike Benedeck
Director, Loss Control
(630) 276-5646
mbenedeck@team-ihha.org

Hosted by IHA Insurance Solutions in partnership with the Central Illinois Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration.