Chicago Tackles COVID-19 Disparities In Hard Hit Black And Latino Neighborhoods

When COVID-19 first hit the United States, it spread through communities of color at alarmingly disproportionate rates. This was especially true in Chicago. NPR