A new survey from the CDC found that 4% of respondents consumed or gargled diluted bleach solutions, soapy water and other disinfectants to protect themselves from the coronavirus. US News & World Rprt