A record 20.5 million jobs were lost in April as unemployment rate jumps to 14.7%

The impact of the economic shutdown tore through the US labor market at historic levels, slashing 20.5 million workers from nonfarm payrolls and sending the unemployment rate skyrocketing to 14.7%. CNBC