Pritzker outlines regional reopening as state records 176 new COVID-19 deaths

As the state saw its largest single-day spike in COVID-19 deaths with 176 more dead, Gov. J.B. Pritzker unveiled a plan to reopen four different regions of the state in five phases. Daily Herald