Southern Illinois hospitals to resume elective surgeries, procedures as early as Friday

As COVID-19 spread in the United States, hospitals across the country postponed nonessential and elective procedures and surgeries to conserve resources for the care of infected patients. The Southern