Implicit Bias and Racial Disparities in Healthcare

Black women in the United States are 4 times more likely to die of a pregnancy related death than white women and on average white men live four and half years longer than black men. Chicago Defender